

Welcoming Saskatchewan dental assistants to our national leadership team!

The Canadian Dental Assistants Association (CDAA) is very pleased to announce that effective January 1, 2022 the Saskatchewan Dental Assistants Association (SDAA) has joined the CDAA as the voice for Saskatchewan dental assistants at the national level. As we work together to advance our profession and strive for unity across the country, the CDAA is committed to meeting challenges with determination and a positive approach. We are proud to include the SDAA as a valued partner in developing the future of dental assisting in Canada.
